Novitiate of the Society of Jesus Cemetery	Fr. Co.	Novitiate of the Society of Jesus Cemetery East Church St. & East 3 rd St. Frederick. St. Johns had bought the property from Thomas Mullady in 1858, then sold it to the Novitiate Academy of Frederick County in 1882, It was sold to David Lowenstein in 1890 (Fr. Co. Deed WIP 11-162) with the condition that that area not be disturbed "so long as the remains of persons buried there many years ago continue to repose there" and if anyone wanted to use that area they had to disinter the remains at their cost and turn them over to either the pastor of St. Johns or the rector of the Novitiate. The area was surveyed as "Lowenstein's Addition to Frederick" in 1891. It appears that the area where the cemetery was is now under the part of E. 3rd St where it meets E. Church SE of Austins Alley. Presumably Lowenstein had the burials removed to St. John's Cemetery. Newspaper article-News October 8, 1914. East Church St. & East 3 rd St. Frederick MD. 39.416859° -77.402323°. Philip Harding obtained the land in 1776 (Fr. Co. Deed BD 2 258-260) and died at age 44. Land then went to son Christian Harding who obtained a patent on the land called Establishment (Fr. Co. #1287) in 1788. Christian Harding (1766-1848) willed the land to his son Philip Harding in 1848. Philip Harding who married Rebecca Buckey then deeded the land to their daughter Virginia McCaffery in 1872 (Fr. Co. CM 9-372). In 1905 the land was sold (Equity Case STH 3-259) to John C. & Jessie Buckey. John C. Buckey was the grandson of Rebecca Buckey Harding's brother Ezra Buckey. In 1912 the land was sold out of the family to Walter E. Burrall (Fr. Co. Deed 300-120). Fr. Co. Plat Book 53-94 (1994) shows a burial ground 500' northwest of the Harding house. Fort Frederick Burial Ground	Wa. Co.	Hagerstown Daily Mail 20 Nov 1925 G. C. Mana? (Resident Fort Frederick State Forest) Reports old graveyard of the fort that had been lost. Was relocated by family who first removed the stones to cultivate. Graveyard temporarily staked off. Notes and Queries Historical, Biographical and Genealogical Relating Chiefly to Interior Pennsylvania - Annual Volume, 1897 Page 78 William Henry Egle. Some years ago the writer visited Fort Frederick Washington County Maryland. I knew there had to be a burial ground near. My inquiries with the local people were fruitless. Finally a colored family said there were graves in a thicket a half mile distant. Farmers for generations had ploughed around it and appeared to be ¼ acre in size and was thickly studded with headstones. Many had inscriptions but no longer readable except some with dates the oldest 1768. I visited again a year later and found to my horror the extension of the W.M.R.R. was being constructed through the copse of trees. Workmen had corralled horses to trees around the graves with many wholly obliterated. Fort Frederick Road Big Pool MD. Area of 39.610289° -78.003710°
