William Yohn 1800-1871 Mary Wampler Yohn (Relict of John Yohn) 1779-1847 Daughters of Mary Yohn 1779-1847 Buried in Westminster Elizabeth Yohn Powder Sundergill 1802-1879 Mary Yohn Smith 1807-1862	Ca. Co.	Ludwick Wampler 1752-1826 (Father of Mary Wampler Yohn) obtained the land where the Yohn Cemetery is located in 1813 from Joshua Porter (Ba. Co. Deed WG 126-140). In the 1826 will of Ludwick Wampler (Fr. Co. Will HS 3-483) I leave to my daughter Mary Yohn my farm in Baltimore County. After the death of Mary Yohn I bequeath the farm to her three children William Yohn, Elizabeth Powder and Mary Yohn. A dispute over the land led to Chancery Court and the land went to William Yohn, Elizabeth Powder and Mary Yohn (Ba. Co. Deed TK 234-282 1833) The sisters of William Yohn sell their right to the land to William Yohn in 1849 (Ca. Co. Deed JBB 13-287). The land then went to Manro Yohn in 1903 (Ca. Co. Deed 98-451). In 1937 the land went to Merle Yohn (Ca. Co. Deed 170-583) "Except the family burial ground". In 1973 the property made went to Edward W. Titus (Ca. Co. Deed 551-545). Carroll County Cemetery List (Yohn Family 5-41) States Edward W. Titus owned the property in 1991 when the graveyard was discovered. The cemetery now amounts to nothing but an overgrown area approximately 60 x 30 feet with depressions, mounds, small trees, groundhog holes, and the two stones listed. It is obvious that more individuals were once buried here. Information Not found on Find A Grave  Note: Unknown if John Yohn (Husband of Mary Yohn 1779-1847) is buried here. Walter Funderburg Sr. 1715-1778 Catherine Stoll Funderburg 1725-1794	Fr. Co.	Walter Funderburg will executed May 29, 1778 naming therein his wife, Catherine, and his ten children. The will was probated Oct. 16, 1778 (Frederick Court House, G.M. No. 1, Folio 90). He therefore died during this interum at the approximate age of 63 (if not a few years older). He was buried on a hilltop on his own farm. Catherine, b. Dec. 4, 1725, is listed in the First U. S. Census 1790, Frederick County, Maryland and is the last extant record of her. Thus she survived her husband by at 12 years. She lived to the age of 65 or more, and was buried beside Walter in the family cemetery on the hilltop on their own farm. Third son of Immigrant Ancestor, Walther von der ,Burg.Walter Vonderburg-that appears to be his preferred way of spelling the name; and writing it, "in beautiful German script"-(also Funderburg) had reached, perhaps, his 19th birthday when his father died, in 1778, leaving him "head of household," with his mother and the four younger siblings; David, Noah, Rachel, Esther. This arrangement lasted for some five years. In the meantime, Walter, having attained his majority, became rightful owner of the homeplace; but the mother, as provided in the father's will, was to continue possession of "my Dwelling house," it said, "while She remains my Widow." Having gone to Lancaster, Pennsylvania, seeking a bride, "Walter brought his wife home to the Father's house." Shortly afterwards, he sold or traded his interest in the Plantation to elder brother Daniel and then acquired the "Prospect 1776" estate (c. 1786) where he lived generously until his death; buried there in the family plot. Harbaughs Chance lies in between Old Sabillasvile Road on the Maryland State line. Fr. Co. Equity Case JWLC-2, 511-521 1861 ordered the sale of the land of Garrett Woolf (1767-1859) Harbaughs Chance 32 acres. In the book The Flautt Family in America- Mrs. Frank Stough Schwartz 1971. Information on Woolf Family burials is listed. The book eludes to the fact that John Woolf was buried on the Resurvey on Israels Lot where he made his home. The will of John Woolf states his home place was on tract Resurvey on Mt. Olivet Tied Dog &amp; Sweedland. The statement he was buried on Resurvey on Israels Lot could be true as this was part his original land holdings. The distance between his home place and Resurvey on Israels Lot is about 1.5 miles. 1926 Letter: Grover A.
