Novitiate of the Society of Jesus Cemetery	Fr. Co.	Novitiate of the Society of Jesus Cemetery East Church St. & East 3 rd St. Frederick. St. Johns had bought the property from Thomas Mullady in 1858, then sold it to the Novitiate Academy of Frederick County in 1882, It was sold to David Lowenstein in 1890 (Fr. Co. Deed WIP 11-162) with the condition that that area not be disturbed "so long as the remains of persons buried there many years ago continue to repose there" and if anyone wanted to use that area they had to disinter the remains at their cost and turn them over to either the pastor of St. Johns or the rector of the Novitiate. The area was surveyed as "Lowenstein's Addition to Frederick" in 1891. It appears that the area where the cemetery was is now under the part of E. 3rd St where it meets E. Church SE of Austins Alley. Presumably Lowenstein had the burials removed to St. John's Cemetery. Newspaper article-News October 8, 1914. East Church St. & East 3 rd St. Frederick MD. 39.416859° -77.402323°. 1768-1802 Amelia Woolf Flautt 1776-1818 Catherine Wolf 1781-1786 Margaret Wolf 1787-1791 Elizabeth Wolf 1792-1794		Garrett Woolf (1767-1859) in 1811 obtained the tract Harbaughs Chance 32 acres (Fr. Co. Deed WR 41-112). Harbaughs Chance lies in between Old Sabillasville Road on the Maryland State line. Fr. Co. Equity Case JWLC-2, 511-521 1861 ordered the sale of the land of Garrett Woolf (1767-1859) Harbaughs Chance 32 acres. In the book The Flautt Family in America- Mrs. Frank Stough Schwartz 1971. Information on Woolf Family burials is listed. The book eludes to the fact that John Woolf was buried on the Resurvey on Israels Lot where he made his home. The will of John Woolf states his home place was on tract Resurvey on Mt. Olivet Tied Dog & Sweedland. The statement he was buried on Resurvey on Israels Lot could be true as this was part his original land holdings. The distance between his home place and Resurvey on Israels Lot is about 1.5 miles. 1926 Letter: Grover A. Wolf (of Sabillasville MD.) “I can show you where Garrett Wolf lived when he died and where he was buried. I can show you near about the spot he was buried about 5 miles southeast of Sabillasville in a field which was a garden. There are no marks or stones to mark the grave”. The information listed is suspect. Garrett Woolf (1767-1859) sold his fathers home place in 1838. Fr. Co. Equity Case JWLC-2, 511-521 1861 shows he was living on Harbaughs Chance when he died. The statement the spot was 5 miles southeast of Sabillasville is an error. This would place it on the edge of Thurmont MD. The burial location for John Woolf with his wife and children except Amelia Woolf Flautt (1776-1818) is unknown. No information was found in Find A Grave or Names In Stone. People will have to decide the accuracy of the information.

Some years ago the writer visited Fort Frederick Washington County Maryland. I knew there had to be a burial ground near. My inquiries with the local people were fruitless. Finally a colored family said there were graves in a thicket a half mile distant. Farmers for generations had ploughed around it and appeared to be ¼ acre in size and was thickly studded with headstones. Many had inscriptions but no longer readable except some with dates the oldest 1768. I visited again a year later and found to my horror the extension of the W.M.R.R. was being constructed through the copse of trees. Workmen had corralled horses to trees around the graves with many wholly obliterated. Fort Frederick Road Big Pool MD.
