American Indian Indian Will	Al. Co.	"History of Cumberland Maryland" Will H. Loudermilk 1878. Indian Will (Full blooded Indian) Wills Creek, Wills Mountain and Wills Knob named after him. His wigwam was located in a cove lying between the west side of Wills Mountain and Wills Knob near a rocky formation known as the Devils Ladder. Indian Will died around the close of the Revolutionary War. His remains were buried on the top of Wills Mountain.
Unknown Civil War Soldier (Frostburg)	Al. Co.	Graven in Stone and Buried under the Shield: A Guide to Gravestones of Maryland's Civil War Veterans-Ralph E. Eshelman and A. Douglas Rawlinson At the intersection of South Broadway and East College Avenue, Frostburg, is a stone marker for the grave of an unknown Civil War veteran who was uncovered in 1870. The plaque reads, "Unearthed 1870 by Christian Spitznas". Civil War Veteran. Donated 1929 by his son Charles Spitznas." https://msa.maryland.gov/megafile/msa/speccol/sc6100/sc6197/000000/000001/000000/000002/pdf/mdsa_sc6197_1_2.pdf
Indian Grave	Al. Co.	Frostburg Mining Journal (Frostburg, MD.) 7 September 1878. Workmen engaged in excavations for the new railroad next to Judge Buchanans place. Came upon what is supposed to be an Indian grave there were several bodies with arrow heads and other relics. One of the skulls had a round hole made by a large size bullet. https://www.loc.gov/resource/sn85025350/1878-09-07/ed-1/?sp=2&q=skulls+found&r=0.325,0.487,0.436,0.177,0

Indian Burial Ground	Al. Co.	"History of Cumberland Maryland" Will H. Loudermilk 1878. Bradys Mill a number of skeletons were unearthed while digging a foundation for a distillery for Samuel Brady. The remains were buried in a sitting posture some depth below the surface. Bradys Mill was located near Cresaptown. Practice of the Indians was to bury their dead under piles of stone. On the farm of Christopher Kelly 14 miles below Cumberland one of these stone piles was opened and a serpentine pipe of green tinted stone along with rings were found.
Fort Cumberland Burial Ground Also See Methodist Graveyard Lot 154 Cumberland Street Section	Al. Co.	"History of Cumberland Maryland" Will H. Loudermilk 1878. French & Indian War. Colonel Innes being left at Fort Cumberland did all he could to alleviate the suffering of the wounded. Many of them died and were buried on a hillside near the fort. Colonel Joshua Fry (1700- 1754) French & Indian War Fry colonel of the Virginia Regiment. Fry died on May 31, 1754, after falling from his horse while leading his troops near Fort Cumberland. Information shows Joshua Fry was buried beneath an oak tree between Wills Creek and the encampment. Also states George Washington cut an inscription into a large oak tree at the head of the grave of Colonel Fry. Older citizens remember a large and very old oak tree on which an inscription had been carved but time had defaced it. This tree stood at Lot 154 at the corner of Cumberland Street and Spruce Alley. Cumberlands first and for some years its only place of public burial. It had been a cemetery before Cumberland was laid out. Information Problem Lot 154 is the location of the first Methodist Church in Cumberland established many years after the French & Indian War. Fort Cumberland Burial Ground would be closer to the fort. Same location as the Colonel Joshua Fry (1700- 1754) monument?

		17 May 1899 “Excerpts from The Cumberland Times” transcribed by Charles Often. Deed to an old graveyard has been sold and residents must be transferred to some other burial ground. The graveyard fronts Cumberland Street and persons prior to 1852 lie buried in this lot. In 1799 Thomas Beall (of Samuel) deeded the lot (Al. Co. Deed C-64) to John J. Jacob & Joseph Cresap trustees of the Methodist for public worship with no lot number listed. A church built there was torn down 17 years ago.
Hooks Graveyard	Al. Co.	Hooks Graveyard origins starts with John Snowden Hook who first obtains land which makes up the Hook Graveyard in 1791 from Thomas Beall (of Samuel) part of the tract Walnut Bottom (Al. Co. Deed A-64). Over the years more land was obtained. In 1912 the graveyard was sold to William Pullard from Ezra B. Hook (Al. Co. Deed 110-704). Deed states “South side of Walnut Street in Cumberland commonly known as Hooks Grave Yard. Same piece of property Ezra B. Hook inherited from his father John L. Hook who in turn inherited it from his father James Hook. Same property that James Hook inherited from his father John Snowden Hook. Find a Grave list the graveyard but no mention of the early members of the Hook family. Are early members of the Hook Family still buried here? Between Walnut St. & Columbia Street Cumberland MD. 39.65948,-78.76715. See Find a Grave for additional information Burials Not Listed on Find a Grave The earliest known burial was Hanson Pigman who died in 1812-13. His remains, along with his headstone were reinterred to Rose Hill at a later date. List additional persons buried in the Hook Graveyard but were reinterred to other graveyards. See Allen, Thomas Poole and Zelch family section for further.

		8 April 1887 Excerpts from The Cumberland Times transcribed by Charles Often. R.N. Batcholder Quarter Master General of the Army sent a letter to the G.A.R. members. Stating 12 Union soldiers are buried in Hooks graveyard which is practically abandoned and badly neglected. General Batcholder steps needed to be taken to protect them. A committee was appointed to take steps for the removal of these remains. No soldier names were listed or what graveyard that were moved to. Find a Grave list one soldier. Find a Grave states "Memorial Day" events in the mid 1890s listed six soldiers, Lemuel Foster, William Feaga, John Hughes, William Morrison, Oliver Froby and Unknown Wright. By the mid 1950s only John Hughes was honored. Civilian Telegraph 1864 news article making a plea for someone to open up a new graveyard. Cumberland Street (Also See Fort Cumberland Burial Ground Section)		Joseph Cresap and J.J. Jacob, trustees of the Methodists for public and divine worship. A church built there was torn down 17 years later and the church is not the Centre Street ME Church. One problem in moving the residents is that the graves are unmarked and identification is impossible. 14 Jul 1899 Exhumation and reburial activities begun by Mr. Isaac Nelson. 15 Jul 1899 Mr. Lewis F Wilson has the contract to re-inter bodies. 17 Jul 1899 Captain David Lynn removed from old Methodist cemetery on Cumberland Street and removed to Rose Hill. (Full column article of history of David Lynn of the Revolutionary War). Archives of Maryland Online-Proceedings and Acts of the General Assembly, 1874. CHAPTER 81. AN ACT to empower the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Cumberland, to sell and convey a certain lot of ground in said city WHEREAS, Thomas Beall, of Samuel, of Allegany County, did in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, convey by deed to Joseph Cresap and John J. Jacob and their successors, in trust for the use of the Methodist Society in the town of Cumberland, as a place for public and divine worship, a lot of ground in said town, which said deed was duly recorded among the land records of Allegany County, and the property taken and held under it for the last seventy-three years. Scharfs History of Western Maryland Vol. 2. 1882. First Methodist church in Western Maryland was built about the year 1789. It was erected upon a lot of ground given for the purpose, situated on the hill west of Will's Creek, immediately in rear of Dr. Bruce's present residence, on what is now known as Smallwood Street. It was a one-story frame building, about thirty-two by forty feet. It was furnished with a plain plank pulpit, and long, narrow benches, without backs. Services were held in the church until the year 1816, when it was found to be too small for the congregation and a lot of ground having been secured on the east side of Will's Creek on Centre Street, the spot now occupied by the present handsome edifice, a new church was built. (Land Records) 1. Thomas Beall (of Samuel) to John J. Jacob & Joseph Cresap for $1.00 (Al. Co. Deed C-74 1799) Trustees for the Methodist Church of Cumberland which now stands. No lot number shown. In the deed it states “Thomas Beall will if legally required to execute any other deed for the more effectual sure making for the aforesaid lot for the said Trustees”. 2. Allegany County Equity Case 4002 William Beall and others (Defendants) (Al. Co. Deed 71-182 1891) Lot 154 sold to Maria L. Ryan. Deed index shows Thomas Beall (of S.) Estate by trustees. Apparently Thomas Beall never executed a deed for the property and it went back to the estate of Thomas Beall and was then sold to Maria L. Ryan in 1891. 3. Maria L. Ryan sold the lot to Henry H. Hartsock & David P. Miller (Trustees) 1891 (Al. Co. Deed 71-417 Lot 154). Deed index shows Centre Street M.E. Church of Cumberland. 4. Henry H. Hartsock & David P. Miller (Trustees) Allegany Equity Case 4302 (Al. Co. Deed 86-389 Lot 154) 1899 to William H. Ash. No deeds mention a graveyard "History of Cumberland Maryland” Will H. Loudermilk 1878. (Beale Family?)		Land Owners. 1977 Allegany County Maryland Property Tax Map. Owner at the end of Michael Road is Mary A. Hudson (Deed 469-61 80.5 Acres). The deed states "Known as the Thomas Beall Farm" part of the tracts Amicably Adjusted, Fox Chase and Streets Folly. Tracing the deeds back in 1882 the heirs of Thomas B. Beall sold the land (Al. Co. Deed 57-676 1882). Thomas B. Beall obtained the land from his father Rezin Beall in 1855 (Al. Co. Deed 13-315) just before his fathers death in 1855. Rezin Beall obtained the land in 1825 (Al. Co. Deed N-85) from Ignatius Middleton. None of the deeds from 1977 mention a burial ground. The land was in the Beall Family for nearly 60 years. 1850 Allegany County Census shows Rezin Beall age 75 living next to his son Thomas Beall age 47. Beall Family tree is also listed (Family Search). Was this the Beall Family Cemetery? Find a Grave list no information.

Dean Family Joseph Dean Sr. 1777-1855 Wife Elizabeth Dean 1783-1860<1870 Son 1. Michael Dean Son 2. William Dean 1802-<1880 Wife	Al. Co.	History of Allegany County, Maryland James W. Thomas and T.J.C. Williams-1923. William Dean came to Maryland about 1750 and settling on Green Ridge Allegany County and married a Miss Ginnevan near Oldtown. Children were Catherine, Mathias, William Jr. and Michael Dean. Michael Dean was the first Dean to be buried on American soil. Michael Dean was buried in the family burial ground on Green Ridge. William Dean Sr. lived to be 101. William Dean Jr. married Elizabeth Davis with children Sarah, John William, Joseph, Richard Davis, James, Lewis Michael, Leonard, Samuel & Mary. The above information is partially true. Joseph Dean Sr. was the father of William Dean who married Elizabeth Davis not William Dean Sr. Proof is in the 1847 Al. Co. Deed 3-129. States "Joseph Dean to Joseph Dean (of William) the grandson of Joseph Dean". There is no William Dean Sr. Additional Information Found

Elizabeth Davis Dean 1808-<1880		In the Allegany County Maryland census a grouping shows up starting in 1810 with Joseph Dean. In the 1830 census a Joseph & William Dean are next to each other. In 1840 it list Joseph Dean Sr. and Joseph Dean Jr. as well as William Dean next to each other. In the 1850 Allegany County census it list all three living next to each other with their families. Joseph Dean age 73, Joseph Dean age 34 and William Dean age 48. History of Allegany County Maryland list Mathias Dean as a son of William Dean Sr. (aka Joseph Dean Sr.). Mathias Dean is living next to his nephew Joseph and Maria Dean in the 1860 census near Flinstone MD. Two Corrections 1. The William Dean Sr. in History of Allegany County Maryland is actually Joseph Dean Sr. 2. Joseph Dean Sr. is the father of William Dean who married Elizabeth Davis not a William Dean Sr. Both Joseph Dean Sr. and Jr. are not listed in the 1860 census only Elizabeth Dean (wife of Joseph Dean Sr.) living with her grandson James Dean. Information shows Joseph Dean Jr. died 1857 in Virginia. Find a Grave list a Joseph Dean buried in Wilson Cemetery #3 at Flintstone MD. Information shows birth as 1816 and death date as 1904. This is the birth date of Joseph Dean Jr. which information shows died in 1857 Virginia. Headstone photo shows death date as 1904. No death certificate located at the Maryland State Archives. Family trees show Joseph Dean (of William) died in 1904. This is Joseph Dean (of William) Note: On the Find a Grave page for Joseph Dean died 1904 list his father as Joseph Dean 1777-1855? and mother as Elizabeth Genneman Dean 1783-1860. This would be true if this was Joseph Dean Jr. born 1816. Land Records

		Joseph Dean first appears in land records in 1816 obtaining a lot in Skipton (Oldtown) Al. Co. Deed H-497). Joseph Dean next obtains 30 to 40 acres part of the tract Chrismans Purchase from Andrew Deffenbaugh in 1819 (Al. Co. Deed K-247). In 1847 Joseph Dean deeds the land to Joseph Dean (of William) (Al. Co. Deed 3-129). 1850 census list the value of real estate for each person. Besides her husband are 5 married children: Thomas B. of this city; Charles G. and John of Davis WV; William Lashley and Mrs. James Ash of Flintstone. The funeral is tomorrow from the M E Church of Flintstone, Rev George Harris of Eckhart officiating with interment in the family burying ground.
Madore Family Francis Madore ?	Al. Co.	"History of Allegany County, Maryland" By James Walter Thomas, Thomas John Chew Williams. States Francis Madore lived on the land of Thomas Beall and died there. Buried in the corner of Elza Nave field by the Pike side at its turn where you come in sight of the Robey Schoolhouse. Information Found William Roby obtained part of the tract Prospect & Turkey Flight in 1837 (Al. Co. Deed T-60 61 Acres) from the estate of Jacob Hoblitzell. In 1854 William Robey for $1.00 sells land for a schoolhouse part the 1837 land which became known as Pleasant Mill School according to the Allegany Co. Land Record Index. In this same area is the land of Thomas Beall. Two deeds were found where Francis Madore obtained land from Thomas Beall but these were for lots in Cumberland.

McKenzie Family Moses McKenzie Sr. 1759-1824 Wife Sarah A. McKenzie 1765-1845 Son Moses McKenzie Jr. D. 1838	Al. Co.	Moses McKenzie Sr. obtained from David Shriver Jr. 127 acres in 1812 (Al. Co. Deed G-36) part of the tract Western Road. In 1823 Moses McKenzie Sr. sold the land to his son Moses McKenzie Jr. (Al. Co. Deed M-296). In 1848 a Complaint was filed in the Court of Equity of Allegany County, Maryland by the brothers and sisters of Moses McKenzie, (died 1838), son of Moses McKenzie (b. 1760), requesting that a parcel of land (known as the "Western Road") left by Moses when he died intestate in 1838 be equitably partitioned. This was the same parcel of land that was conveyed to Moses McKenzie (Moses McKenzie father b. 1760)) by Daniel Shriver, Jr. on September 13, 1812 and otherwise referred to in that deed as the "Western Road" property. The equity case lists all of Moses (died 1838) brothers and sisters and their spouses and siblings where applicable. Jesse McKenzie is listed in the complaint and received a share of the proceeds when the land was sold. In 1854 the land was sold to Louisa Keller (Al. Co. Deed 13-646). The land made its way to Julius Grabenstein in 1908 (Al. Co. Deed 103-285) and remained in the Grabenstein family until the late 1900's. The 1977 Allegany County Maryland Property Tax Map 37 shows the Grabenstein property on Winchester Road.

		McKenzie Graveyard My father Ambrose R. McKenzie 1910-2003 told me that one time he was walking down the Winchester Road with his Grandfather Samuel S. McKenzie 1845-1927. Samuel looked over toward the old Grabenstein Farm and said that Moses McKenzie was buried there. I told my father that the only Moses in our line of and importance was Moses McKenzie 1760-1824 the Revolutionary war Soldier. In 1994 I interviewed Edward Grabenstein 1910-1998, I ask him about the old cemetery on the farm and he told me that it was on the hill that they covered when they built the mall. So this is as close as I can figure where the cemetery was. Maybe in a 100 or 200 years someone will use this information to locate the old Moses McKenzie Cemetery. Joseph Edward McKenzie Oct. 2008. Twigg Family Asa Twigg 1794-1878 Wife Catherine Jeffries Twigg 1795-1820	Al. Co.	29 May 1905 “Excerpts from The Cumberland Times” transcribed by Charles Often. Remains of Mr. & Mrs. Asa Twigg removed. The family of the late Francis Twigg have recently had the graves of their grandparents opened and the remains removed from the little grave yard on the Naughton farm to the family lot in Mt Herman Cemetery. Mrs. Twigg, who was a Miss Kate Leasure [Catherine Jeffreys - see note below] died December 18, 1818, at the age of 26 [21] years. When her grave was open, the glass covering the casket was found in fairly good state of preservation. The buttons on the burial shroud and a finger ring were also found in apparently as good condition as when they were buried. The skull and teeth were also apparently free from decay, not withstanding the 87 years during which they had rested in the earth. The grave in which Mrs. Twigg had been buried was more than six feet in depth. The remains of Mr. Twigg, who died 24 years ago, aged 94 years, showed greater evidence of decay than those of the wife, who had preceded him to the grave by more than 60 years. The grand children of the couple now living are: Dr. WT Twigg and Mr. B. Twigg of this city; Mr. Alva M. Twigg and Mrs. H.D. Dean and Miss Laura Twigg. From: Doris Goldsborough dgoldsborough@gcnet.net Some years ago when a group of Twiggs were researching the family name, I was looking at a book "Meshack Browning". the story of a hunter, and happened to see a "Hannah Twigg Browning" pictured in a rowboat. It so happened I was talking with the 'right' friend as she had some old letters ,which belonged to her father, and they pertained to Hannah and her family. Asa Twigg was Hannah's brother. Amongst these letters was a listing of Twiggs, copied from the Francis Twigg bible. When some of the "Twiggs" were working on the Twigg Family of W.MD. we lacked info on Francis.....but, here it was!

		Note:Francis Twigg was b. 29 Sept. 1750 and d. 1840, and was b. in London, England. He m. Mary Leasure on 12 October 1770. She died in 1853. Asa Twigg m. Catherine Jeffreys 38 Mar 1815. In one of the letters I was able to have, this is what was written, in part: "Before my father died that was before 1900 he asked me to do him a favor. After he passed out, and I promised I would and he asked me to take his mother and father up. They was buried in an old large grave yard over near the Baltimore Pike near the old Christy home. His mother was buried 87 years 8 months and 8 days. We took both grandfather and mother and found her head, teeth was perfect, one eye tooth on the right was missing. But someone had written in the old bible stating his mother died when she was 21 years old and Father was a baby one year old. She lost one eye tooth on the right side and we found out that was true also found her wedding ring and in the note in the bible stating his mother was a beautiful lady and refined. Just look back at our folks. They had refinement to. I buried them in my father's lot in Mt. Herman and all has a lovely Quincy granite monument. They were buried 116 years. We did not bother them as they was buried North of where we now live on their own grave yard farm…....." Then, in another letter (mostly repeating what he said in another letter): "My father asked me 6 months before he died Son I want you to do me a little favor after I pass out, and he told me after 6 months I want you to go over in the old Naughton Graveyard. A man by Selby owned the graveyard and farm. Before, my father and others had always kept up a nice fence around the graves and he said, you know where that 2 hickory trees is marked, you take those bodies up and put them in our lot in Mt. Hermon Cemetery. Naughton would not let them keep fences up any more. So I got some men to help and got a nice box made of whole pine, and my grandmother had been buried 87 years 8 months 8 days, and she was buried in a homemade walnut coffin built with glass ½ and a vault built. Cut in stone and covered with heavy walnut lumber, 6 ft. 4" deep, and it had been written in the bible stating she was a beautiful woman 21 years old and had her right eye tooth taken out, and a ring on her right finger. We found them ….....and all her bones was firm and ….....

My grandfather Asa Twigg, his bones was buried I think 40 or more years. But his bones looked like they had tiny holes in them and the Drs. Said it was because he was old….....”

Twigg Family

Asa & Catherine Twigg were moved to Mt. Hermon Church Cemetery (39.63517, -78.71816) on Mt. Hermon Road. Also located at Mt. Hermon Church Cemetery are Francis & Mary Leisure Twigg the parents of Asa Twigg. The lands of Francis & Asa Twigg are east of the church on Williams Road. The headstone for Francis & Mary Twigg clearly date years later with Francis Twigg death in 1829. Unknown if Francis & Mary Twigg were relocated from his land or the same location as Asa Twigg. Note-Mt. Hermon Church cornerstone was laid in 1891.

Graveyard Land Owners

The 1905 article mentions the burial location owners as Christy, Selby and Naughton. Arthur Selby dies in 1858 (Al Co. Will B-150). In his will he leaves the tract Moveable Property to his daughter Mary G. Christie wife of Robert Christie. In 1859 Robert Christie sells the tract Moveable Property to Walter W. Selby son of Arthur Selby. In 1869 Walter W. Selby sells the land to Michael Naughton (Al. Co. Deed 29-434). No deeds mention a burial ground. Find a Grave shows the graveyard location on Hardman Road off of Christie Road with no headstone photos. The location matches up with the location of the tract Moveable Property. 		Evening Capital (Annapolis, Md.), August 20, 1901. Church Circle Annapolis. Skull exhumed on Church Circle. Mr. Moss returning from lunch observed a skull and bones lying on the sidewalk near where it had been dug up. Carefully examining the skull found an English coin embedded in the eye socket and the other tilted slightly in the other socket. On each of the coins was lettered "George III Rex." and on the other side the English Coat of Arms surmounted with the English crown. One coin had the date of 1773 and under a magnifying glass the name Virginia is clearly seen. Believed the person died between 1773 & 1776 as English money was not used in the colonies after the Revolution. Custom was in those days to place coins in the eye sockets to keep the eyes closed. MacCubbin (Parole) John MacCubbin 1630-1685 Wife Eleanor Darnall MacCubbin 1650-1711	AA. Co.	Historic Graves of Maryland and the District of Columbia-Helen W. Ridgely 1908 On his old plantation of "Brampton," lie presumably the remains of John Macubin, or Mackubin, the original owner of the land in 1658, and the founder of the family in Maryland. John Mackubin died in 1685. The old graveyard lies in the middle of a ploughed field on the farm now belonging to Mr. Thomas Gaither, beyond "Three Oaks," and though intact and unmolested at the last visit of the chairman of the Memorial Committee, it was untended and overgrown with trees and brambles and bore no sign of having once served as a graveyard, save the oblong holes or indentations which mark the graves of those buried there. The tenant on the place bore witness that there were old stones there within his memory, but they were carried away and used in the foundations of some neighboring houses. Number of burials is unknown. Brampton The tract Brampton is located on the east side of the South River with Riva Road running through the center of the tract. Parole MD. Baltimore on Bush River (Early Baltimore Town) Land is now in Harford County	Ba. Co.	Maryland Historical Magazine Volume 1 Issue 2 (1906). Baltimore on Bush River. Early Baltimore County Courthouse. In 1686 a tract of land conveyed by William Osborne to James Phillips is described in the land records as beginning on Bush River at a point " a little beyond the court house and running with the court land " a certain distance and then running west to the river. Hon. Charles W. Michael in a paper recently read before the Historical Society of Harford County, has, I think, in a satisfactory manner established the fact that the site of this first court house was, as the tradition has always placed it, on a tract of land called Common Garden, lying on the east side of Bush River. This tract was granted to William Osborne by patent in 1678 (though he owned most of it some years earlier), and the site located by Mr. Michael is on that part of it which is included in the farm now called " Old Baltimore," belonging to Mr. James L. Richardson. All trace of Baltimore on the Bush disappeared many years ago. Its site was preserved only by tradition as far back as 1773. In the deposition of Col. John Hall, then seventy-two years old, taken that year in a suit in the Provincial Court by another James Phillips against another William Osborne, he states that he knew a place in Bush River Neck, called the " Old Plantation," where Col. James Phillips formerly lived, and where the burying-ground of the Phillips family was still kept up, and that he always understood that the " Old Plantation " was where the town on Bush River was formerly laid out. Land Office T. B. H. 2-246. The Rev. Dr. Leakin and I visited the traditional site not long ago, and at about a quarter of a mile northward of the particular parcel of land on which Mr. Michael places the court house, and on the farm now called Old Baltimore, we found a burying-ground of the Phillips family. Among other tombstones there is one to James Phillips who died in 1803 at the age of sixty-two. The stone bearing the earliest date of those now there is the one to William Pitt Phillips, who died in 1791, but, in the absence of all evidence of any other burying ground of the Phillips family, it may be fairly assumed that this is the one referred to by Col. Hall, and that it still marks the tract on which the first Baltimore town stood two centuries ago. The Aegis & Intelligencer (Bel Air, MD.) 30 June 1882. Article on Old Baltimore. Burial ground near but the remains seem to have been removed. A solitary grave that appears is covered with a marble slab and overgrown with moss. Phillips Family James Phillips 1740-1803 Wife Martha Paca Phillips 1744-1829	Ba. Co.	Maryland Historical Magazine Volume 1 Issue 2 (1906). Baltimore on Bush River. Early Baltimore County Courthouse. In 1686 a tract of land conveyed by William Osborne to James Phillips is described in the land records as beginning on Bush River at a point " a little beyond the courthouse and running with the court land " a certain distance and then running west to the river. Hon. Charles W. Michael in a paper recently read before the Historical Society of Harford County, has, I think, in a satisfactory manner established the fact that the site of this first court house was, as the tradition has always placed it, on a tract of land called Common Garden, lying on the east side of Bush River. This tract was granted to William Osborne by patent in 1678 (though he owned most of it some years earlier), and the site located by Mr. Michael is on that part of it which is included in the farm now called " Old Baltimore," belonging to Mr. James L. Richardson. All trace of Baltimore on the Bush disappeared many years ago. Its site was preserved only by tradition as far back as 1773. In the deposition of Col. John Hall, then seventy-two years old, taken that year in a suit in the Provincial Court by another James Phillips against another William Osborne, he states that he knew a place in Bush River Neck, called the " Old Plantation," where Col. James Phillips formerly lived, and where the burying-ground of the Phillips family was still kept up, and that he always understood that the " Old Plantation " was where the town on Bush River was formerly laid out. Land Office T. B. H. 2-246.

		The Rev. Dr. Leakin and I visited the traditional site not long ago, and at about a quarter of a mile northward of the particular parcel of land on which Mr. Michael places the court house, and on the farm now called Old Baltimore, we found a burying-ground of the Phillips family. Among other tombstones there is one to James Phillips ; who died in 1803, at the age of sixty-two. The stone bearing the earliest date of those now there is the one to William Pitt Phillips, who died in 1791, but, in the absence of all evidence of any other burying ground of the Phillips family, it may be fairly assumed that this is the one referred to by Col. Hall, and that it still marks the tract on which the first Baltimore town stood two centuries ago. The Aegis & Intelligencer (Bel Air, MD.) 30 June 1882. Article on Old Baltimore. Burial ground near but the remains seem to have been removed. A solitary grave that appears is covered with a marble slab and overgrown with moss. The epitaph reads "To the memory James Phillips and Martha his wife". Martha Phillips was the daughter John & Elizabeth Paca. Strawbridge (Methodist Preacher) Robert Strawbridge 1732-1781 Wife Elizabeth Piper Strawbridge 1735-1791 Note Elizabeth Strawbridge is not shown on the obelisk of Robert Strawbridge	Ba. Co.	Centenary Pictorial Album: Contributions of the early history of Methodism in the state of Maryland George C.M. Roberts 1866. Book states "The remains of Robert Strawbridge are in the family burying ground of the Mr. Wheeler on the farm now owned by Mr. Lee. The graveyard belongs to Mr. Wheeler a descendant of the first owners. On being consulted at once consented to the remains being moved to Mt. Olivet Cemetery. On our first visit we found the ground thoroughly covered with young trees and briars that it was almost impossible to reach the exact spot. Just between the graves and covering them fully a very large poplar tree has grown up. The Baltimore County Union (Towsontown, MD.) 10 November 1866. Article states "On Thursday last the remains of Strawbridge were removed from the farm of Mr. Lee to Mt. Olivet in Baltimore. They had reposed there since 1781 when Mr. Wheeler owned the farm. A large poplar tree has grown up over his grave. Under this a few bones were found. We were shown the bones as they passed the skull & thigh bones along with some arm bones. We are sorry to say there is doubt that these are the remains of Mr. Strawbridge. Reports have always indicated they reposed beneath the large poplar tree which they were dug but there are numbers of old persons in the neighborhood who positively assert that the old patriarch was buried some distance from this tree". The Baltimore County Union (Towsontown, MD.) 24 November 1888 Robert Strawbridge. Article states "A few years ago the bones of Mr. Strawbridge were taken up on the farm then owned by Daniel Lee and reinterred at Mt. Olivet. Miss Wheeler a descendant of the owner when Mr. Strawbridge was buried and opposed the removal of the remains but could not prevent it. She is the only one who had definite knowledge of the exact location and she declined to state where it was. A few days after the removal of the bones Miss Wheeler went out to Mr. Lees and visited the burial lot.

		She said the remains that were taken up were not those of Mr. Strawbridge. The grave opened was not near the spot where he was interred. She took great delight in knowing the remains of the great preacher still rested where her ancestors laid them to rest a century before" The Baltimore County Union (Towsontown, Md.) 31 May 1902 Methodist Pilgrimage. "A visit to the original burial place of Robert Strawbridge was in the family graveyard of John Wheeler who owned the property at that time. Daniel Lee purchased the land from the Wheeler estate and later purchased by James Boyce which now constitutes part of Kalima Park. The dwelling house occupied by the Wheeler family was enlarged by Daniel Lee and was destroyed by fire several years ago which nothing remains where it stood except a giant walnut tree that grew in front of it. All of the outbuildings have also been removed The graveyard which is located on a hillside several yards south where the dwelling stood which doubtless lie the remains of many persons is overgrown with bushes and weeds. The Baltimore County Union (Towsontown, MD.) 16 May 1908 Strawbridge Tree. "There is a strong possibility that the walnut tree now standing on a portion of the late James Boyce estate near Ruxton where the funeral of Robert Strawbridge took place will come into the possession of the Methodist Historical Society of Maryland. Mr. Strawbridge in 1781 while visiting with his friend Joseph Wheeler who owned the property was taken suddenly sick and died a few days later. Due to the large number of people attending, the funeral was held outdoors under the tree that stood in the yard near the northwest corner of the dwelling. The remains were interred in the Wheeler graveyard located several hundred yards behind the house. What Information Is True 1. Was Robert Strawbridge buried in the Wheeler family graveyard or at some other spot on the farm?

		2. No mention of where Elizabeth Piper Strawbridge is buried or where she lived after the death of Robert Strawbridge. Land History William Wheeler obtained the land (Hooker Prosperity 114 Acres) by patent in 1706 (Ba. Co. Patent # PL 2-48). William Wheeler dies in 1738 (Ba. Co. Will 1-299) and leaves the land to his sons Solomon & Isaac Wheeler. In 1781 Isaac Wheeler and his part goes to his brother Solomon Wheeler. In 1787 Solomon Wheeler dies (Ba. Co. Will 4-204) and he leaves the land to his sons Thomas & Joseph Wheeler. In 1798 Thomas Wheeler deeds his part to his brother Joseph Wheeler (Ba. Co. Deed WG 56-384). Joseph Wheeler Sr. dies in 1822 (Ba. Co. Will 13-153) and leaves the land to his wife Sarah Wheeler and upon her death the land is to be sold. In 1849 Joseph Wheeler Jr. deeds the land to Daniel Lee (Ba. Co. Deed EAH 69 -247) except ½ acre for a family graveyard. Family History Robert Strawbridge married Elizabeth Piper. Robert Strawbridge dies in 1782 (Ba. Co. Inventory 12-358) with Elizabeth Strawbridge listed as Administratrix. Note 1. Some sites show Robert Strawbridge Jr. dead in 1784. Robert Strawbridge Jr. in 1787 deeds his fathers land in Frederick County Maryland (Englands Chance) to Richard Stevenson (Fr. Co. Deed WR 7-208 50 Acres). 2. Find a Grave -Lichlider Family Cemetery in Frederick County Maryland lists Jane Strawbridge Dwyer D. 1813 Age 70 years. It shows her parents as Rev. Robert Strawbridge (1732-1781) & Elizabeth Piper Strawbridge (1734-1791). This information is an error. If the headstone of Jane Dwyer states died 1813 age 70 this would put her birth at 1743. I don't think Elizabeth Strawbridge would be having children around 11 years old. See Dwyer Family on Master List Burial Ground Newspaper articles state Robert Strawbridge was buried in the Wheeler graveyard several hundred yards behind the house. Indian Burial Ground	Ca. Co.	There seems to have been some Indians along the Hog Creek branch. One tribe went far up the branch and remains of their camp and medicine pit were found only a few years ago. Others lived near Blairtown, for we know they had a large burying ground there and their caves have been found along the banks. Still others lived near what is now the Hog Creek Mill Dam. When the dam was being rebuilt several things which the Indians had buried were dug from the banks. Blairtown referred to above was clearly a settlement of slave belonging to Charles Blair about 1790. The site of this settlement was just below Hog Creek branch on the road leading from Harmony to Smithson. In 1825 much of the land in this neighborhood was purchased from the heirs of Blair by Short A. Willis, the father of Col. A. J. Willis, who died at Williston a few years ago. Jacob Appler 1757-1843 Wife Mary Hyde Appler 1761-1836		Two Centuries of the Appler Family in America (Charles R. Appler 1947) states "The son of Erhart and Rachel Appier was born July 1, 1757 at Uniontown District, Frederick Co., Md., and died April 3, 1843 at Uniontown, Carroll Co., Md. Buried at burial ground on farm. Headstone moved in 1932 to Little Pipe Creek Cemetery (Pipe Creek Church of the Brethren). When I first visited this farm in about 1900 with my father, mother and brother Jacob we found the old burial ground a sorry mess of bushes and briars; fallen tombstones and holes made by small burrowing animals. Sewell Family	Ce. Co.	The Cecil Whig (Elkton, MD.) 2 February 1907. The old Sewell family burial vault at Holly Hall is one people often inquire about, but it has been lost to time and development. Located near the early 19th century mansion, it was on a grass-covered hill overlooking the Elk River, one county newspaper reported in 1898. At one time this was a peaceful spot, but today traffic whirls past on Bridge Street while parking lots, fast-food places, and stores have crowded in from all sides, covering most of the ground. Nothing remains to mark the family graveyard. The Sewall family vault that was located at Holly Hall, Elkton, Cecil County, Maryland, is the last known location of the remains of James Sewall, his wife and other members of his family. Unfortunately, the family vault on what was once part of the Holly Hall estate has been lost to development, and whether or not the remains of James Sewall were preserved and moved is unknown at this time. 39.60227, -75.82782

Slave/Colored Burial Ground Ignatius (Louis) Colbert D. 1838 Age 104 Wife ?. Colbert D. 1831 Age 60	Fr. Co.	Catoctin Clarion (Mechanicstown, MD.) 28 December 1887. Clairvaux Farm near Mount Saint Marys College Emmitsburg. This is the site of the William Elder Graveyard. When a new owner of the land obtained it around 1870 it was named "Clairvaux" and a new house was built which became a resort. The house was destroyed by fire in the 1970's and never rebuilt. According to the article there were two graveyards here one for the Elders and the other for colored people. The coloreds were lately taken up and reinterred in the spot of the whites for ease of land care. One man 107 years old whose bones were the most perfect of all. Church in the Turkey

In early Frederick County Maryland German Church records is mention of the "Congregation in the Turkey". The diary of Reformed Pastor Conrad Steiner states he visited 10 times in 1757 the "Congregation in the Turkey" Between 1772-1786 Lutheran Pastor Andrew Krug visited the Turkey area 5 times. United Brethren Preacher Christian Newcomer recorded in his journal the he visited on April 17, 1796 a place called "Turkey". If Reformed Pastor Conrad Steiner states he visited the Congregation in the Turkey 10 times in 1757 was there an earlier church or were services conducted in church member homes? Location today is Hessong Bridge Road & Blacks Mill Road near Creagerstown. It is unknown how long the church remained active as original members died off and others made their way to churches in Creagerstown and Mechanicstown (Thurmont).

Land Notes

In 1766 Frederick Holtzman obtained a warrant to have the Partnership tract surveyed and was patented in 1773 (Fr. Co. Patent #2911 6.75 Acres). In 1774 Frederick Holtzman (Frederick Co. Deed V-697 6-3/4 Acres) deeds the tract of land known as Partnership to Christian Shryock and John Smith (Trustees of the Lutheran Church) and George Zimmerman and Charles Baltzell (Trustees of the Presbyterian Church). Land was to be used for a chapel of worship for the Lutheran & Presbyterian Churches and a schoolhouse.

The tract Partnership 6.75 acres has the tract Bonnetts Resolution 1743 for Martin Wetzel (PG. Co. Patent # 357 150 Acres) bordering on the west side. On the east side borders the tract Mill Place 1742 for Handel Barrick (PG. Co. Patent # 1467 100 Acres). In 1768 George Zimmerman obtained 100 acres from Handel Barrick part of the tract Mill Place (Fr. Co. Deed L-592). This bordered the east side of Partnership.
Curious the land remained vacant from 1742/43 to 1766 when it was surveyed. The tract Partnership ran along the Hessong Bridge Road which was an early main road to Frederick for the area. Ground penetrating radar scan was done at the location in 2021 with a total of 42 probable graves and 36 possible graves identified in two clusters. Was this church or burial land for the original settlers prior to 1774 when it was sold to the trustees? Is this the site of "Church in the Turkey"?

On Find a Grave the location is the site of the Licklider Family Cemetery with 7 persons listed. The land where the cemetery is located was never owned by the Leichleider Family. Conrad Leichleider (1724-1781) land was about 1.5 miles further up Hessong Bridge Road and was formerly Michael Reisner's tract Green Spring (Fr. Co. Deed J-908 200 Acres 1764).
George Zimmerman (1738-1793) bought the tract Mill Place in 1768 from Handel Barrick (Fr. Co. Deed L-592 100 Acres) which borders on the eastside of the church property. The church property made its way into the Zimmerman Family and remained there until 1891 when it was sold by Hannah Zimmerman (1814-1904) wife of Michael Zimmerman (1814-1891) Fr. Co. Deed JLJ 1-171 19 Acres. Both Conrad Leichleider (1724-1781) & George Zimmerman (1738-1793) were buried here (Headstone photos Find a Grave).

2021 Phase II Hessong Bridge Archaeological Summary
Bridge replacement on Hessong Bridge Road over Little Hunting Creek. It states "A small family cemetery was known to be located on the southwest portion of the project area, but its full extent was uncertain. In addition, a historic stone-lined well had been previously filled in by the property owner within the project area. The archaeological investigation, which employed a ground-penetrating radar survey, additionally identified a total of 42 probable graves and 36 possible graves in two clusters; the remains of two buildings; a path connecting the buildings to the cemetery; and a concentration of slag related to a blacksmith shop". (See link below)

Frederick News Post January 18, 1995. The late Ross Stull who farmed north of the Turkey graveyard. He recalled that earlier there was evidence of 50 or 60 graves I remember that 30 years ago there were still some stones in place and depressions showing unmarked graves. Recently I found only remnants of about a dozen stones thrown together near the old wild cherry tree.

Novitiate of the Society of Jesus Cemetery	Fr. Co.	Novitiate of the Society of Jesus Cemetery East Church St. & East 3rd St. Frederick. St. Johns had bought the property from Thomas Mullady in 1858, then sold it to the Novitiate Academy of Frederick County in 1882, It was sold to David Lowenstein in 1890 (Fr. Co. Deed WIP 11-162) with the condition that that area not be disturbed "so long as the remains of persons buried there many years ago continue to repose there" and if anyone wanted to use that area they had to disinter the remains at their cost and turn them over to either the pastor of St. Johns or the rector of the Novitiate. The area was surveyed as "Lowenstein's Addition to Frederick" in 1891. It appears that the area where the cemetery was is now under the part of E. 3rd St where it meets E. Church SE of Austins Alley. Presumably Lowenstein had the burials removed to St. John's Cemetery. Newspaper article-News October 8, 1914. East Church St. & East 3rd St. Frederick MD. 39.416859° -77.402323°. Headstone for Harriott Dorsey Crapster 1792-1815 was located during construction for a new subdivision on the south side of Libertytown. Harriott Dorsey Crapster was the wife of Basil Crapster and the daughter of Vachel & Anne Poole Dorsey. After the death of Harriott Dorsey Crapster her husband Basil Crapster remarried and moved to Howard County MD. Burial Ground It is unknown as to why Harriott Dorsey Crapster 1792-1815 was buried here. No land records have been located showing a Crapster or a Dorsey owning the land. Only one headstone present. Believed her daughter Harriet Dorsey Crapster 1815-1816 is buried here also. Possibility Harriott Dorsey Crapster 1792-1815 died from complications of child birth. Unknown if any other burials are located here. The developer has reserved the area around burial ground. Co.	Amos Davis Sr. 1743?-1793 obtained the land in 1757 (Fr. Co. Deed F-223 200 Acres). Amos Davis Sr. dies in 1793 (Intestate) with his wife Mary Davis listed as executor on his Inventory (Fr. Co. Inventory Vol. 2-365 1794). In 1803 the farm was sold to Dr. Francis B. Sappington (Fr. Co. Deed WR 25-290 1803) by the heirs of Amos Davis (Wife not listed). Farm was sold out of the family in 1840 to Samuel Pfoutz (Fr. Co. Deed HS 11-240 1840) with graveyard reserved. Amos Davis Sr. 1743?-1793 is listed on Find A Grave with no birth or death date also no family information. A check was made of the records at Mt. Olivet Cemetery Frederick MD. Records show Amos Davis was reburied at Mount Olivet on 10/20/1902 but even the 1902 ledger book contains only the name, no dates and not even info concerning where he was moved from. What may be helpful is that the following people were moved at the same time: Dr. Francis Brown Sappington Mary Sarah (Gosnell) Dorsey and Robert Davis. It is unclear who decided to move the other bodies, and why at that time. The burial plot was purchased by Dr. Richard & Matilda Dorsey. She is the daughter of Dr. Francis Brown Sappington 1754-1838. The Davis, Brown and Sappington Families are related Note: Burial location is unknown for Mary Gaither Davis 1758-<1803 wife of Amos Davis Sr. 1743?-1793. Burial location is unknown for Ann Ridgely Sappington 1759-1850 wife of Dr. Francis Brown Sappington 1754-1838 Unknown who Robert Davis and Mary Sarah (Gosnell) Dorsey are related to.

Walter Funderburg Sr. 1715-1778 Catherine Stoll Funderburg 1725-1794	Fr. Co.	Walter Funderburg will executed May 29, 1778 naming therein his wife, Catherine, and his ten children. The will was probated Oct. 16, 1778 (Frederick Court House, G.M. No. 1, Folio 90). He therefore died during this interum at the approximate age of 63 (if not a few years older). He was buried on a hilltop on his own farm. Catherine, b. Dec. 4, 1725, is listed in the First U. S. Census 1790, Frederick County, Maryland and is the last extant record of her. Thus she survived her husband by at 12 years. She lived to the age of 65 or more, and was buried beside Walter in the family cemetery on the hilltop on their own farm. Third son of Immigrant Ancestor, Walther von der ,Burg.Walter Vonderburg-that appears to be his preferred way of spelling the name; and writing it, "in beautiful German script"-(also Funderburg) had reached, perhaps, his 19th birthday when his father died, in 1778, leaving him "head of household," with his mother and the four younger siblings; David, Noah, Rachel, Esther. This arrangement lasted for some five years. In the meantime, Walter, having attained his majority, became rightful owner of the homeplace; but the mother, as provided in the father's will, was to continue possession of "my Dwelling house," it said, "while She remains my Widow." Having gone to Lancaster, Pennsylvania, seeking a bride, "Walter brought his wife home to the Father's house." Shortly afterwards, he sold or traded his interest in the Plantation to elder brother Daniel and then acquired the "Prospect 1776" estate (c. 1786) where he lived generously until his death; buried there in the family plot. By winding undulating road1 Prospect was about 12 or 15 miles west of the Plantation on the drafts of Israel Creek. While he was a small child, his parents moved (1760-62) from west of Catoctin Mountain, to the lands near Johnsville. His place of birth other than Frederick County, is not determined. His church affiliation was German Baptist Brethren (Dunkers). Source: Funderburk History And Heritage By Guy B. Funderburk, Ph. D. 1967. www.seekingmyroots.com/members/files/G002448.pdf Fr. Co. Catherine Harding (1743-1806)

Lime Plant Road New Market MD.

Philip Harding obtained the land in 1776 (Fr. Co. Deed BD 2 258-260) and died at age 44. Land then went to son Christian Harding who obtained a patent on the land called Establishment (Fr. Co. #1287) in 1788. Christian Harding (1766-1848) willed the land to his son Philip Harding in 1848. Philip Harding who married Rebecca Buckey then deeded the land to their daughter Virginia McCaffery in 1872 (Fr. Co. CM 9-372). In 1905 the land was sold (Equity Case STH 3-259) to John C. & Jessie Buckey. John C. Buckey was the grandson of Rebecca Buckey Harding's brother Ezra Buckey. Hurley Family Rev. Moses Hurley Sr. 1755-1842? Wife Sarah Robertson Hurley 1757-?	Fr. Co	Information recently located may show the burial ground of Rev. Moses Hurley. On his property is the grave of Miriam C. Draper (1861-1863). Daughter of Mary E. Draper. Hurley/Draper Connection Looking at family trees in census records Charlotte Hurley 1806-1880 (daughter of Moses Hurley) married William Draper Jr. (1803-1887). There was also William Draper Sr. (1779-1854) & wife Mary Fisher Draper. 1850 Frederick County Census list William Draper Sr. (1779-1854) & wife Mary Fisher Draper living in Catoctin District. William Draper Jr. (1803-1887) & wife Charlotte Hurley Draper are living in Hauvers District The Catoctin District covers the land where the Moses Hurley land is located. The connection with Mary E. Draper (mother of Miriam C. Draper) and the grave on the Moses Hurley land is unknown at this time. Land Records Moses Hurley Sr. (1755-1842) and his son Levin Hurley bought land next to each other around 1813. Moses Hurley Sr. (1755-1842) obtained 104 acres in 1813 (Fr. Co. Deed 44-692) part of the tract Range About the Miserable Knobs. William Draper Sr. with his sons and daughters obtained 93 acres in 1824 part of the tract Range About the Miserable Knobs (Fr. Co. Deed JS 21-90) which is located about ½ mile south of the Moses Hurley property. 1857 Frederick Co. Equity Case (BGF 2-296) testimony was heard from Jacob Young of D. who stated old William and Mary Draper were in possession of the land until William's death, then Mary Draper and Joseph Draper lived there. Land is located on Spruce Run Road Wolfsville MD. No probate records were located for Moses Hurley Sr. or William Draper Sr. or Jr.

		It appears the land went to the heirs of Moses Hurley. In 1858 his daughter Sarah A. Hurley Haynes sells 7 acres of the land (Fr. Co. Deed BGF 3-105). In 1857 the 93 acres obtained in 1824 went to Equity Court (BGF 2-282) and was ordered sold. Land was sold in 1863 by the trustees (Fr. Co. Deed BGF 9-77) to Jacob Wolfe Jr. Graveyard The headstone of Miriam C. Draper (1861-1863) daughter of Mary E. Draper is located on the Moses Hurley Sr. property. No burial information was found for Moses Hurley Sr. or William Draper Sr. on Find a Grave or Names In Stone. Question "Are they buried in the area with Miriam C. Draper (1861-1863). The headstone photo for Miriam C. Draper (1861-1863) shows the headstone propped up against a tree. Was the headstone moved to this location? Casper Mantz Family (1718-1791)	Fr. Co.	Frederick County Equity Case WIP 1 Folio 53-90 (January 1885) Sale of lots in Frederick with plat map. Charles W. Haller, a descendant of a daughter of Casper Mantz Sr. claimed the burying ground was used up to 1854 and the marked graves were moved to Mt. Olivet Cemetery. Part of lots 210 & 211. Also states William MANTZ, a grandson of Peter MANTZ, one of the sons of Caspar MANTZ Sr. He didn't believe there were any gravestones remaining. He claimed there were five graves, two of them being his brothers, but he can't tell where because the tombstones have long since disappeared. Petition claims Lot #211 and part of #210 have not been used as a burial ground for many years and most of those buried there, that could be identified, have been removed to other cemeteries. Part of lot has been cultivated and is partly planted in fruit trees and is no longer being used as a burying ground except it still has a few bodies buried there from many years ago. John Woolf (1740?-1818) wills to his son Garrett Woolf (1767-1859) 22 acres Fr. Co. Will HS 2-150 "The home place I now dwell". Amelia Woolf Flautt (1776-1818) & Jacob Flautt daughter of John Woolf is willed 32 acres part of Resurvey on Israels Lot where she now dwells. In 1838 Garrett Woolf deeds John & Christian Lantz (Fr. Co. Deed HS 7-31) the land left to him by his father John Woolf. Garrett Woolf (1767-1859) in 1811 obtained the tract Harbaughs Chance 32 acres (Fr. Co. Deed WR 41-112). Harbaughs Chance lies in between Old Sabillasvile Road on the Maryland State line. Fr. Co. Equity Case JWLC-2, 511-521 1861 ordered the sale of the land of Garrett Woolf (1767-1859) Harbaughs Chance 32 acres. In the book The Flautt Family in America- Mrs. Frank Stough Schwartz 1971. Information on Woolf Family burials is listed. The book eludes to the fact that John Woolf was buried on the Resurvey on Israels Lot where he made his home. The will of John Woolf states his home place was on tract Resurvey on Mt. Olivet Tied Dog & Sweedland. The statement he was buried on Resurvey on Israels Lot could be true as this was part his original land holdings. The distance between his home place and Resurvey on Israels Lot is about 1.5 miles. 1926 Letter: Grover A. Wolf (of Sabillasville MD.) "I can show you where Garrett Wolf lived when he died and where he was buried. I can show you near about the spot he was buried about 5 miles southeast of Sabillasville in a field which was a garden. There are no marks or stones to mark the grave". The information listed is suspect.

		Garrett Woolf (1767-1859) sold his fathers home place in 1838. Fr. Co. Equity Case JWLC-2, 511-521 1861 shows he was living on Harbaughs Chance when he died. The statement the spot was 5 miles southeast of Sabillasville is an error. This would place it on the edge of Thurmont MD. The burial location for John Woolf with his wife and children except Amelia Woolf Flautt (1776-1818) is unknown. No information was found in Find A Grave or Names In Stone. People will have to decide the accuracy of the information. The Flautt Book states Amelia Woolf Flautt (1776-1818) and her son John flautt D. 1818) are buried at St. Joseph Church Emmitsburg MD. Source: https://archive.org/details/flauttfamilyinam00schw Fazenbaker Family George Fazenbaker 1757-1810 Wife Elizabeth Corbus Fazenbaker 1760-1825	Ga. Co.	Wayne Bittinger wrote, "By 1787, George had made his way to western Maryland. That year, he was listed as a settler on Military Lot 3869, which is situated on the eastern slope of Big Savage Mountain in present-day Garrett County, two or three miles northwest of Barton, Maryland. On 8/31/1799, George purchased 100 acres--Military Lots 3858 and 3859--on the east side of Big Savage Mountain, two miles west of present-day Barton, MD. Find a Grave The Michaels Cemetery is located on the old Fazenbaker Farm that was originally owned by George "The Hessian" Fazenbaker. The farm consists of two 50 acre Revolutionary War military lots, lots 3858 and 3859 that George purchased in 1799. He was still living there when he died about 1810. This is the most likely spot that George Fazenbaker and his wife Elizabeth could be buried. She died about 1823 and her son sold the farm later in the 1850's to Kilita Michaels. George Fazenbaker dies in 1810 (Al. Co. Will A-102) and leaves Lot # 3858 & 3859 to his wife Elizabeth Fazenbaker. In 1857 Godfrey Fazenbaker sells the land to Kelita Michael (Al. Co. Deed 16-414). North side of Old Morgantown Road about 1000' east of Frantz Road shows a cemetery symbol. The parcel is listed 223 or 225. Current property tax maps do not show the cemetery. Tracing the owners it is possible this is the John Rutan Graveyard. In 1837 John Rutan makes his will and dies in 1838 with wife Catherine listed. (Al. Co. Will Vol. A-434). In 1840 (Al. Co. Deed BB-469) the heirs of John Rutan sell part of the tract Friends Fortune and Military Lots 3284-3286. Deed states "Military Lots were patented to John Rutan in 1779". This may be in error since Military Lots weren't laid out until 1787.

(Our Mother) 1817-1853		This deed matches up to the location of the cemetery on the 1977 tax map. The deed states “Land was sold to John Slicer”. The grave of John Slicer is located in Grantsville per Find a Grave. Another clue is listed on Find a Grave for Mary Rutan Hoye. Daughter of John Rutan (1751–1838) and Catherine Jones Rutan (1750–1834). The Rutan family of Huguenot origin were early settlers in the "New Jersey" colony near Buffalo Run. What is today Garrett County and neighbors of the Frazee’s, Coddingtons, and Savages who also came from New Jersey. There is no confirmed record of John and Catherine's burial location, but they, along with their son Isaac, "are probably buried in the farm graveyard on the orchard hillside, in unmarked graves." Harford County-HA

Baltimore on Bush River (Early Baltimore Town) Land is now in Harford County	Ha. Co.	Maryland Historical Magazine Volume 1 Issue 2 (1906). Baltimore on Bush River. Early Baltimore County Courthouse. In 1686 a tract of land conveyed by William Osborne to James Phillips is described in the land records as beginning on Bush River at a point " a little beyond the court house and running with the court land " a certain distance and then running west to the river. Hon. Charles W. Michael in a paper recently read before the Historical Society of Harford County, has, I think, in a satisfactory manner established the fact that the site of this first court house was, as the tradition has always placed it, on a tract of land called Common Garden, lying on the east side of Bush River. This tract was granted to William Osborne by patent in 1678 (though he owned most of it some years earlier), and the site located by Mr. Michael is on that part of it which is included in the farm now called " Old Baltimore," belonging to Mr. James L. Richardson. All trace of Baltimore on the Bush disappeared many years ago. Its site was preserved only by tradition as far back as 1773. In the deposition of Col. John Hall, then seventy-two years old, taken that year in a suit in the Provincial Court by another James Phillips against another William Osborne, he states that he knew a place in Bush River Neck, called the " Old Plantation," where Col. James Phillips formerly lived, and where the burying-ground of the Phillips family was still kept up, and that he always understood that the " Old Plantation " was where the town on Bush River was formerly laid out. Land Office T. B. H. 2-246. The Rev. Dr. Leakin and I visited the traditional site not long ago, and at about a quarter of a mile northward of the particular parcel of land on which Mr. Michael places the court house, and on the farm now called Old Baltimore, we found a burying-ground of the Phillips family. Among other tombstones there is one to James

		Phillips who died in 1803 at the age of sixty-two. The stone bearing the earliest date of those now there is the one to William Pitt Phillips, who died in 1791, but, in the absence of all evidence of any other burying ground of the Phillips family, it may be fairly assumed that this is the one referred to by Col. Hall, and that it still marks the tract on which the first Baltimore town stood two centuries ago. The Aegis & Intelligencer (Bel Air, MD.) 30 June 1882. Article on Old Baltimore. Burial ground near but the remains seem to have been removed. A solitary grave that appears is covered with a marble slab and overgrown with moss. John Busey (nephew of Samuel Busey) 1783?-1832 Wife Rachel Clagett Busey 1788-1844		Find a Grave • Members of the Samuel Busey family and later the Peter D. Posey family were buried in a small cemetery (1 rod) on the Busey plantation, located along the road from River Road to the original Busey plantation house. • Later, graves of Posey family members were removed and buried at Rock Creek Cemetery • When the plantation was subdivided in the 20th century for development as the Springfield subdivision, two (quarter acre) cemeteries along the path of the original plantation house road were set aside as "not included" (plat attached). According to neighbors, this cemetery was a burial ground for Indians. It is possible that some of the plantation slaves had intermarried with local Indians and this land was set aside for burials of enslaved workers. • Field stones (possibly former grave markers) aligned along Pollard Road. • Vinca, periwinkle, and cedar trees throughout site Location is now a subdivision. Daughter Mary Cecil 1763-1819 Son In Law James Davis 1771-1847 Wife Anna Cecil Davis 1775-1834 Son 1		1847 Mo. Co. Deed STS 3-45 gives background on the land after the death of Sabrit Cecil. Deed states "Division of the land of Samuel, John and Mary Cecil who died seized. The late James Davis became the purchaser of the land". The heirs of James Davis deed the land to his children Hezekiah, Benjamin and Mary Davis. In 1858 Hezekiah Davis dies and in 1863 Benjamin Davis sells the land (Kilamanark) to John Myers (Mo. Co. Deed JGH 9-68) except ¼ acre for a graveyard. The graveyard is mentioned in multiple later deeds. Burial Ground The land were the burial ground is located remained in the Cecil family for over 100 years. Montgomery County Burial Sites Inventory ID HP-208 Cecil-Davis Family Cemetery provides information on the burial ground location. Area is now a subdivision. Number of burials is unknown. No headstones remain. Takoma Park MD. 38.98908, -76.99991 Conflicting Information In Montgomery Planning Burial sites Inventory Update 2023. The Evening Star Newspaper 8 August 1937 States "J.A. Davis 901 Prospect Avenue Takoma Park was caretaker of the burial ground. According to Mr. Davis, in all there are about 125 persons buried in this plot, and this includes his great-grandfather and great-grandmother Hezekiah Davis and wife. Find a Grave shows Hezekiah Davis & wife along with his father James Davis buried at Rock Creek Cemetery Washington D.C. Hezekiah Davis has a headstone photo and his wife Jane Drane Davis with no headstone photo but her obituary (Evening Star 25 July 1899) states "Buried at Rock Creek Cemetery".

Clagett departed this life at Spring Grove Asylum and was interred in the family burial ground on the farm of Thomas Briggs Esq. near Gaithersburg. Land History Thomas Briggs mentioned above is believed to be Samuel Thomas Briggs (wife Sarah Clagett Briggs). Samuel T. Briggs obtained 44 acres in 1875 from James H. Clagett (Mo. Co. Deed EBP 13-161). G.M. Hopkins 1879 Montgomery County Atlas Darnestown Dist. No. 6 shows Jas. H. Clagett next to Z. Briggs just west of Gaithersburg. Land located in the area of todays Tiffany Drive & Hope Lane Gaithersburg MD. Area of 39° 8'4.64"N 77°13'58.09"W. Area is heavily developed. No deeds mention a burial ground. Family Relations (Census Records & Find a Grave) John H. Clagett (father of William L. Clagett) is the brother of James H. Clagett. Asa & Mary Clagett are their parents. Burial Ground The burial location for James & John Clagett is known along with Samuel T. Briggs. Possibility that Asa Clagett (1790-1847) and his wife Maria Higgins Clagett (1795-1840) the parents of James & John Clagett are buried here also. No information found on their burial location.

Cooley Note 8 children listed above are from the Admin. Account for Thomas Cooley. Eleanor Young is not listed in the will of Ann Cooley 1822		Edward J. Chiswell Farm (MIHP File No. 16-2). States "After careful mapping of deed boundaries it revealed that Thomas Cooley, who was previously regarded as the original owner of the property, never owned or resided on this tract". Deeds were mapped out (2025) and in fact the Chiswell Farm was part of the 200 acres Thomas Cooley obtained in 1782. In 1829 William Cooley sells part of the 200 acres (Mo. Co. Deed BS 2-385 90 Ac.) to Henry W. Talbot. This deed covers the Edward J. Chiswell Farm. This 90 Ac. covers the northwest corner of Thomas Cooleys 200 acres. Related Information John A. Jones Farm (MHIP File No. 16-3) shows the correct deed information. In 1836 Benjamin Cooley sells the remainder of the 200 acres to Henry W. Talbot (Mo. Co. Deed BS 8-84 107 Ac.). This 107 Ac. covers the John A. Jones Farm at Wasche Road and West Hunter Road which is the southeast corner of Thomas Cooleys 200 acres. Also the file states the buildings on the Jones Farm weren't built until around the 1860's. With the information found the Edward J. On this ninth day of November 1847 Ephraim Johnson a resident of the County and State aforesaid aged about fifty six years provided that he is the son and only surviving child and heir of Richard Johnson who was a Soldier in the War of the Revolution late of said County. Stated that he frequently heard his father say that when he arrived at the age of 21 years he enlisted in the Army of the Revolution as a Private. He also deposes and says that his said father died on the 26th day of March 1841 at the age of 86 years 6 months and 10 days having survived his wife that he is his only heir. Wife of Richard Johnson (1755-1841)

		During research a clue has surfaced as to the identity of the wife of Richard Johnson. Maryland Marriage Licenses and Records Index for Anne Arundel Co. shows a marriage listing for Richard Johnson & Minah Mobberly 17 January 1781. If the marriage took place in 1781 this would put Minah Mobberly birth date around 1761. Their son Ephraim Johnson was born in 1788 the 1781 marriage date looks good. Sense no marriage records are available for Montgomery Co. prior to 1796 that part remains unknown. Available Montgomery County Church Records were also checked with no information found. Possible connection is found in Montgomery County land records. Archibald Mobberly/Mobley (1760-1827) is present in the area in 1783 he obtained deeds to several parcels of land starting in 1799 which were located 1-1/2 miles north of Richard Johnsons land Hollands Discovery. With the information found could Minah Mobberly/Mobley be the sister of Archibald Mobberly/Mobley and both children of Thomas Mobberly/Mobley Jr.? Magruder Col. Zadoc Magruder 1729-1811 Wife Rachel Pottinger Magruder 1732-1807	Mo. Co.	NSDAR records show the headstone located on his farm in Derwood in 1952. The Magruder Family Cemetery was originally located at the family plantation, "The Ridge" in Redwood (now called Derwood), Montgomery County, Maryland. The original house was circa 1755 and the cemetery was located in a lightly wooded lot 300' West of the house. The original property passed through family heirs and was eventually sold. Reserved from the sale in 1919 was the family burial grounds. It was promised that "no further interments will occur therein". At that time, it was noted that there originally was a slave cemetery on the same property. Originally, there were 30 to 40 family burials, with only 2 engraved gravestones. Burials were for the descendants of Zadock Magruder (son of John Magruder of Dunblane). The graves of Robert Pottenger Magruder, 1769-1822 and his wife, Elizabeth Perry, 1770-1835, were moved to the Laytonsville United Methodist Church in Laytonsville, Montgomery County, Maryland. Their gravestones were the only ones remaining when the property sold. 19000 Muncaster Road Derwood MD.39.16829, -77.12046 https://www.geni.com/people/Col-Zadock-Magruder/6000000009214999455

A cemetery was indicated on a 1957 plat map which seemed to be within the planned roadwork." Twelve graves were recorded, photographed, and excavated following standard archaeological recovery methods. The cemetery was active for over thirty years, from at least the time of Jesse H. Wainwright's burial circa 1822 through circa 1857 when James F. Brittingham was buried within the family plot. The remains of the individuals recovered from the Brittingham Farm cemetery were respectfully placed with their personal effects into corrugated plastic boxes and sealed. A religious ceremony was performed graveside by Presbyterian Reverend David Parke before reinterment at Beechwood Memorial Cemetery in Princess Anne, Maryland. A marker will be placed at the gravesite. The marker will read "Here lie the earthly remains of James F. Brittingham (1797 - 1857), his wife Rosanna A. W. Some years ago the writer visited Fort Frederick Washington County Maryland. I knew there had to be a burial ground near. My inquiries with the local people were fruitless. Finally a colored family said there were graves in a thicket a half mile distant. Farmers for generations had ploughed around it and appeared to be ¼ acre in size and was thickly studded with headstones. Many had inscriptions but no longer readable except some with dates the oldest 1768. I visited again a year later and found to my horror the extension of the W.M.R.R. was being constructed through the copse of trees. Orndorff Burial Grounds

Sharpsburg Maryland

Where is Christian Orndorff (1726-1797) and his son Christopher Orndorff (1752-1823) buried? Land owned by Christian Orndorff and Christopher Orndorff involve two separate burial grounds which the Orndorff's reserved rights to. Resurvey on Smiths Hills (Newcomers Mill) & Andersons Delight Property (Mumma Cemetery Antietam Battlefield)

Resurvey on Smiths Hills

(Newcomers Mill)

Christian Orndorff (Blacksmith) in 1762 obtained from James Smith 503 acres the tract called Smiths Hills (Fr. Co. H-244). Deed states except a 100' square foot (10' x 10') burying ground part of Smiths Hills at a marked stone setup on the west side of Antietam Creek. James Smith reserves free passage for himself and his heirs forever.

In 1791 Christian Orndorff sold to his son Christopher Orndorff 303 acres part of Resurvey on Smiths Hills (Wa. Co. G-472). Christian Orndorff reserves free passage for himself and his heirs to said 100 square foot burying ground as often as they shall require.

(This land became the Orndorff/Newcomer Mills on the Antietam Battlefield)

Christopher Orndorff sells the 303 acres to Jacob Mumma in 1796 (Wa. Co. I-764) except two burying grounds 100' square. Christopher Orndorff reserves free passage for himself and his heirs to said burying ground as often as they shall require.

Jacob Mumma Sr. Sells 324 acres to John Mumma in 1831 (Wa. Co. MM-110) except two burying grounds each 100' square.

Unknown if Andrew & Catherine Putman were moved also or they are still buried on the farm. The following is a transcription printed in the "Antietam Valley Record," April, 1899 - from a copy found by Rev. Ezra Clayton Wyand in an old German Bible in the attic of the Christian Wyand home: The burial ground is "here forty-two yards from the fence on the line south of the orchard, and forty-two yards east from the rocks above the branch of water, and about 150 yards direct south from the house, is the side of the family burial plot, and here lies, to my knowledge, the remains of Rose Wyand, my father's sister. My father's brother, Caleb Wyand, pointing out the plot to me on Jan. 1, 1909, remarked that it used to be enclosed with a paling fence, around which he plowed when a boy, and later when the fence had decayed, and fallen, he plowed across the plot. George Fisher, an old colored man, an ex-slave and war veteran, tells me that he and Pembroke Griffith there years ago plowed out grave stones. Mrs. Amelia Rohrer, a descendant who is now in her eightieth year, tells me that she attended funerals which were held in the barn. Amelia Putman Wyand 1761-1853 Husband Christian Wyand 1745-1811		Christian Wyand 1745-1811 & Amelia Putman Wyand 1761-1853 headstone is at Mt. Hebron Cemetery Keedysville MD. From information found it appears they were moved from the farm around 1850 and the graveyard plowed over. Unknown if Andrew & Catherine Putman were moved also or they are still buried on the farm. The following is a transcription printed in the "Antietam Valley Record," April, 1899 - from a copy found by Rev. Ezra Clayton Wyand in an old German Bible in the attic of the Christian Wyand home: The burial ground is "here forty-two yards from the fence on the line south of the orchard, and forty-two yards east from the rocks above the branch of water, and about 150 yards direct south from the house, is the side of the family burial plot, and here lies, to my knowledge, the remains of Rose Wyand, my father's sister. My father's brother, Caleb Wyand, pointing out the plot to me on Jan. 1, 1909, remarked that it used to be enclosed with a paling fence, around which he plowed when a boy, and later when the fence had decayed, and fallen, he plowed across the plot. George Fisher, an old colored man, an ex-slave and war veteran, tells me that he and Pembroke Griffith there years ago plowed out grave stones. Mrs. Amelia Rohrer, a descendant who is now in her eightieth year, tells me that she attended funerals which were held in the barn.
